TWO FEDERAL EMPLOYEES ARRESTED AFTER SELLING DRUGS FROM THE J.F.K. FEDERAL BUILDING

BOSTON—Anthony Carroll, of Warwick, Rhode Island, and Eula Gallop, of Dorchester Massachusetts were charged today in federal court with conspiracy to distribute oxycodone, morphine, and vicodin, as well as distribution of those controlled substances.

United States Attorney Michael J. Sullivan, June Stansbury, Special Agent in Charge of the Drug Enforcement Administration in New England, Thomas McGoff, Acting Regional Director of the Federal Protective Service under U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and Jeffrey G. Hughes Special Agent in Charge of the Northeast Department of Veterans Administration, Office of Inspector General announced today that Anthony Carroll, age 44, of 212 Sandy Lane, Warwick, Rhode Island, was charged in a complaint with conspiracy to distribute oxycodone and morphine, distribution of oxycodone, and distribution of morphine (two counts). Eula Gallop, age 59, of 34 Wolcott Street in Dorchester, was charged in a complaint with conspiracy to distribute vicodin, and distribution of vicodin (three counts).

The complaint alleges that Carroll, an employee of the Veteran's Affairs Office, sold prescription drugs to a cooperating witness over the time period of October 2005 to January 2006. The complaint details drug deals by Carroll while he was employed in the federal building in which numerous federal agencies have offices, including the agency primarily responsible for investigating federal drug offenses, the Drug Enforcement Administration.

The complaint against Gallop alleges that Gallop, a former employee of the Veteran's Affairs Office, sold prescription drugs to a cooperating witness over the time period of October 2005 to January 2006. The complaint details drug deals in and around the federal building by Gallop while she was employed at the Veteran's Affairs Office in the federal building as well.

If convicted on these charges, Carroll and Gallop face up to twenty years imprisonment, to be followed by 3 years of supervised release and a $1 million fine.

The case was investigated by the Veteran's Affairs Office, the Federal Protective Service (FPS) under U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and the Drug Enforcement Administration. It is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Glenn A. MacKinlay of Sullivan's Major Crimes Unit.

The details contained in the complaint are allegations. The defendant is presumed to be innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
